VISION

To champion the professional development of those working in railway organisations enabling the whole railway system to succeed.

VALUES

Inclusive | Collaborative | Professional | Innovative & Bold

Ellie Burrows, CIRO Chair

CIRO aims to support members throughout their career, whether that is increasing knowledge, building their professional network, starting a new job, studying for a new qualification or looking for a new challenge.

We are a young company that has grown rapidly on its base of world class educational content and clearly defined professional standards. Our new five-year business plan, developed through wide-scale industry consultation reflects the new business unit structure of the CIRO team.

GOALS

Member Value

Provide valuable support that helps to improve the rail workforce and organisations to succeed.

Rail People Development

Offer accessible learning routes for individuals and for organisations seeking to attract, train and retain talent.

Professional Standards

Be a guide in maintaining professional standards in rail.

Force for Good

Actively promote industry best practice through collaboration and partnerships within the industry.

What people say about us - members

The best indicator of CIRO's success and contributions to the industry are from the stakeholders we represent. Here is what some of those people have to say about the work we do...

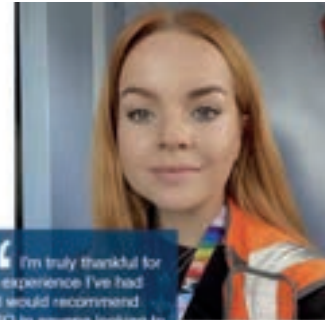

“ Being a member of CIRO allows you to see all the different career opportunities that the industry has to offer.

Claire Wolding
Network Delivery Manager

“ I thoroughly recommend CIRO to anyone looking to pursue qualifications alongside their employment.

Saleem Ali
Incident Controller

“ I'm truly thankful for the experience I've had and would recommend CIRO to anyone looking to pursue a career in the railway industry.”

Esther Lamb
Customer Service Management
Apprentice

It's very reassuring to know that I have the support of CIRO available to me as I progress further in my career.
